WHIZZ-LY GOOD!

by PATRICK MORGAN

Whizz is a hive of activity. Patrols can enjoy a variety of activities, including giant games, performing arts experience and an escape room.

Giant games include chess, jenga, table tennis, connect four and battleships.

Samia, Hiya, Sumayet, Greeny and Momo, all from Troop B104 and visiting from Bangladesh, greatly enjoyed playing table tennis against fellow Scouts from Indonesia, especially as it was their first time ever playing table tennis. They came to AJ to make friends and said "it was great fun teaching Bengali to Aussie Scouts." Momo is also celebrating her birthday at Jamboree on the 7th.

Victorian and South Korean members of Troop 104 Sam and Georgia thought playing giant chess was "pretty cool". This is Georgia's second Jamboree, "The conditions are more difficult than AJ2016, with the dust and wind."

Lilly, Annika, Isaiah and Hugh from Troop B110, from NSW, all enjoyed the challenge of the escape room, solving puzzles in order to find the code to unlock the door and leave.

Scout Annika commented that the escape room was "very challenging, and makes you work as a Patrol."

BIG FRUIT BUST

by ASH MARKS

There was a dust up yesterday when the South Australian Police officers onsite noticed the big pineapple the Queensland Contingent is flaunting in their gateway.

The Elite Pineapple Investigation Squad questioned Queensland's Deputy Contingent Leader Scott Orchard, who failed to declare the fruit at the border. Scott also admitted to making the pineapple in question.

"So your finger prints are all over it, then?" asked Senior Constable Ananas.

"We will be passing your details on to the Department of Environmental Protection for further investigation," said Sergeant Comosus. The penalty for bringing undeclared fruit over the SA border can be up to a $100, 000 fine.

Camp Chief Harry noticed the commotion. "Queensland have done wonderful things," he said. "But they did not declare their pineapple at the border!"

VOX POP*

What activity are you most excited about?

Adelaide, B105

Metro Mania. No I'm not named after the city, people ask me all the time if I was born in Adelaide, I wasn't. I've been once with my mum and I remember visiting Haigh's Chocolate (it was yum).

Kush, B105

Woodhouse. I'm looking forward to another camp. A camp within a camp. We have patrols off there today, so we'll have inside info when they get back. "

Amber, C214

Everything!. I'm looking forward to everything. I haven't been on a camp like this before, I couldn't decide what activities to do, so I want to do them all. I don't want to miss a thing.

Liam, D536

Bang . It's fun and exciting. I've been shooting a couple of times before, I love hitting the target. I'm pretty confident I'll hit the target at least three-quarters of the time!

Dominic 'The Dom', D536

Race Car. I like going super fast, it might be in my blood!". My grandpa drives fast, there was one time in Lebanon he overtook 3 trucks in a row.

Sophie, B105

Bang - Shooting . When I was 9 I went to a shooting range in Arizona with my family, I shot six bullets from a pistol and hit the target twice. It will be fun to do it again and see how many times I can hit the target this time.

Back in the Day...

by KAREN MEYERS

The 5th Jamboree 1955-56 was at Clifford Park, Victoria. The land was owned by Lord Clifford and this one was called the 2nd Pan Pacific Jamboree but was remembered as the "Mudboree" because of the amount of rain and very muddy conditions. The event had 16,000 participants from all states of Australia and from 21 different countries.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

What a day! Heaps more activities. (And, OK, heaps more dust as well.) How's your Patrol going? Is everyone having a great time? If you answered 'yes' to those questions, was that because you guess they're all going well or because you really know? One of the key parts of being a Scout is being part of a Patrol. In a good Patrol (and there are lots of them around) all the Scouts look out for each other. If you're the PL, of course, this is a big part of your job. But if you're not, it's still important - remember that leadership is not just about having a title or a badge.

WEATHER

BANG ON!

BANG! includes land yachting, target shooting, ice skating, BMX riding, African drumming and darts. Patrols who did this activity yesterday thought it was great start to their Jamboree

SCOUTS GO SPLAT!

by KERRIE MCDONALD

Head to Splat for onsite water fun, rotating around six different activities.

At the Surfboard Painting base, your patrol will get busy decorating a pre-cut surfboard. Ethan, Audrey, Caelan, Lucy, Heloise and Rhys A545 said "We'll keep ours in our Tambourine Bay Scout hall."

The Mini-Golf course lets you complete as many possible holes within the time limit. If the holes prove too challenging, you can calm down in the Chill Out Zone. Let go of your stress with a game of petanque, build a sandcastle or hang out in the misting tent.

For a more active challenge, make your way around the Obstacle Course. Can you overcome the boulder wall, the commando net and the Mission Impossible lasers? Will you be able to make your way across the pool on the balance beams and inflatable rings?

If that's not enough wet fun, there's also the inflatable towering Water Slide.

At Pirate Discovery, you'll use cryptic clues to navigate around a treasure hunt, solving puzzles at each stage. The first three Patrols to complete the course win the coveted Splat activity badge. Hannah, B212, said "it's like an escape room but outside."

Jack the sharpshooter

"I like shooting. I do it a lot with my dad and have a .22. It feels good to hit the target. The .22's here are really good because they don't recoil when you shoot. I'm really accurate at shooting."

Dust Bandits

by ASH MARKS

Watch your backs, there's a new gang in town, and this bend ain't big enough for all of us.

There is a bunch of shady characters emerging from the dust around Taillem Bend. These dodgy looking Dust Bandits are rogue Scouts who have been driven to extreme lengths by the harsh Jamboree conditions.

They might not wear leather jackets or have gang colours, but you can pick them by their squinty expressions and the face masks they have scrapped together in a post-apocalyptic fashion. From scarves and buffs, to medical masks and swimming goggles, it's survival of the dust-less.

Keep your Patrol members close and your badges closer, there's no telling what these Bandits are capable of.

THE PARTY KEEPS ON GOING

by MATTHEW ELLIS

Party night one, check. Party night 2? Of course! There's a party every night at AJ2019.

Last night, DJ Bond lit up the stage to a packed audience of Scouts, the beach balls made another appearance over the crowd.

"I want to dance with all of Jamboree," said Lucas from B443.

Mitchell from A651 said, "I can't wait for the loud music and the light show."

Finn from C550 said, "I hope there are good tunes and heaps of bass."

Amy from C550 "tonight is going to be a great night hanging with friends and dancing with them."

MALL VIGILANTES – SUN SMART SQUAD

by SHARON WALLACE

Scouts if you go out in the mall today, you're sure of a big surprise. If you forgot to Slip, Slop, Slap, you better go in disguise!

The AJ2019 organisers are aware of the newly formed Vigilante Group Slip Slop Slap and are cautioning all Scouts to be on the alert.

Slip (Evan Scott), Slop (Mason Sweeny) & Slap (Jye Durman) have assigned themselves the role of Sun Smart Ambassadors for the Camp. The Venturers from NSW, Vic & ACT respectively met at AJ2019 and simultaneously noticed a difference between themselves and some of the Scouts wandering around the mall. Leading by example, they are asking "What's the difference between you and me?"

It could be that a scout is looking a little pink (in colour – not looking like P!nk the singer) or isn't wearing a hat. Along with a joke or two, they can segue into the dangers of not being sunsmart. Mostly the scouts report it as an honest mistake: "I left my hat at camp" or "It just blew off down the mall".

The Vigilantes are confident that, by providing a friendly reminder to Slip Slop Slap, 'no scout will be left behind' due to really bad sunburn!

LIFE HACKS OF THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER

#2: Get a tent like Brendan Watson

As many know, Chief Commissioner Phil Harrison is an outdoor educator. Phil sums up his role: "Five days a week I run challenging, engaging outdoor activities for young people and on the other two days I sit in Scout meetings."

When Phil gets out hiking, he goes lightweight. But at AJ2019 he's met his match in Victorian Chief Commissioner Brendan Watson.

Brendan's tent is large enough for a queen-size bed, a chair, a fridge and a freezer. Everything is solar-powered so while we were coping with 41 degrees the other day, Brendan was complaining that his drink bottle had frozen overnight.

Brendan's tent is in the Leader area. You can pick it by the sensor light that turns on at 3 in the morning every time someone walks past. Says Phil: "Brendan's tent is like the Taj Mahal, but somehow I can't see Groups buying them for each Patrol."

I AIN'T AFRAID OF NO GHOST BADGE

by ASH MARKS

The Antarctic Assassins (more commonly known as Troop B101) have a stealth offering in their badge swapping arsenal – a ghost badge.

Ghost badges are the same as any other badge, except they are all white! These silhouette alternatives are usually rarer than their coloured cousins, which makes them harder to find – and harder still to keep clean.

If you want to try and negotiate a trade deal, track down a Scout from B101.

These ninja penguins are trying to find any other ghosts that might be around, but it is hard trying to see anything in this dust, let alone a ghost! So, we're setting a challenge: are there any other ghost badges here at AJ2019? If your troop has one, come and visit us at The Daily Bunyip!

I can and I will!

by CHLOE TYRRELL

The oldest and youngest members of AJ2019 met yesterday: Dugald Mc Dougall of the Tasmanian Contingent, aged 90, and Pearl C432 aged 10. Dugald, ex-navy reservist, Sea Scout, and Leader fondly recalled his past Jamborees while Pearl is at her first.

Pearl joined Scouts in May 2018, and aims to achieve her blue and green cords. Determined to attend AJ2019, Pearl started working on her Pioneer award a month after she joined the Troop.

Telling of trips to places such as Austria and Switzerland, Dugald attended his first Jamboree in 1948. Recalling his Scouting experiences, including trips to Austria and Switzerland, he joked that "they say it's the short term memory that goes first, not the long."

Despite their ages, both individuals live out the message spread around the camp; "I can and I will." Speaking from experience, Dugald left Pearl with the advice to "put your best foot forward, strive, and have a good time", as we all will.

ADVENTUROUS ACTIVITY QUALIFICATIONS

Adventurous activities training team for Venturers, Rovers and Leaders.

Did you know that we have a team on site specifically looking at Activity Training and assisting members both young and old to obtain qualifications or the pathway where to start..

Qualifications in Bushwalking, Rock climbing, Canoeing, Sailing, Cycling, Archery, Common Core or any other activity area, we are here to assist. This could be an individual activity area or the pathway to a complete Certificate ii, iii or iv in Outdoor Recreation.

We already have over 50 AJ2019 members onsite working towards their Cert ii in Outdoor. Expect to see some presentations over the next few days.

You need to be registered before the activity teams can look at or assess your skills. We will then be able to place you with the correct Instructor and assessor.

For more information drop by the SAIT (Scouts Australia Institute of Training) office located next to AJ HQ in Rymill Road, send us a TXT with your name and a message on 0415 800 322 or email us at ciatd1@scouts.com.au and we will organize a time to meet with you. Don't leave it too late, as spaces may run out.

WIND, HEAT - BLAME THE TRAILER IN THE BACK Paddock

If you're wondering what's going on with Jamboree weather, you can follow real-time data from a trailer at the back of Sites and Services.

It's a monitoring station for SA Water Connect, but also provides weather records.

You can access it at www.waterconnect.sa.gov.au then go to the Data Systems Real Time water data, then zero in on the map to find the monitoring station near AJ 2019 (it's labelled Elwomple).

Then check the data sets on what's happening, like these:

CFS KEEPING US SAFE

Men and women in a different uniform

by KERRIE MCDONALD

The SA Country Fire Service (CFS) have a 9-person crew on-site 24 hours a day to provide fire, rescue and HAZMAT services for our Jamboree. They're also responsible for the fire awareness of all troops off-site, using IT, radio and satellite phones.

On-site, they have a 3000L tanker equipped with urban and wildfire response equipment, breathing apparatus, and thermal imaging equipment. They also have a quick response vehicle for wildfire response and small incidents.

All of the CFS crews are volunteers. Several of the crew have been through Scouts, including CFS liaison Shane Clinch (pictured far left). "We do it to protect lives, property and the environment," Shane said. "We want the Scouts to stay safe and have a happy time while they're here."

Apart from putting out a couple of small grass fires started by the fireworks last night, they've been quiet. "We haven't had any major call-outs yet and we're hoping to keep it that way," he said. "We'd advise Scouts to remain vigilant and act safely."

If you're interested in joining the CFS, they have a cadet program from age 11 and you can join as a senior firefighter at 16. You'll learn basic fire-fighting skills and many cadets go on to have a career in fire-fighting.

"Have a good time on camp. If you see us around, we're happy to chat."

When I say "Aloe", you say "Vera"

The elements here at Tailm Bend seem to be giving the Scouts a run for their money. The soaring heat has started an uproar from dissatisfied sunburnt Scouts over the lack of aloe vera on site. Sage, D540, and his fellow patrol members came to the Daily Bunyip to plead their case. "They at least should've put it on the packing list," Annabella stated.

Despite applying sunscreen and wearing a hat, Sage sports an intense new tan line, in strawberry pink.

Of course, aloe vera won't be needed if you slip, slop slap!

CQ - AJ2019 AMATEUR (HAM) RADIO GATHERING.

Are you a Licenced Amateur Radio Operator?
Do you hold a AOCPC certificate?

If so, you are invited to attend a gathering of Amateur (Ham) Radio operators on Tuesday January at 8 pm (2000). The meeting at Victorian Contingent (VicCon) will conclude at 9 pm.

For more information or to RSVP, contact Philip - VK3JNI at the amateur radio centre (VI25AJ) - High Tech hub by tomorrow, Monday.

AJ's Got Talent - Heat 1

by MADELEINE WOODWARD

On Saturday night, Bend FM hosted the first heat of AJ's Got Talent. There was some fantastic talent showcased in the Allawah Mall as the sun set, we congratulate everyone who auditioned. There was a fantastic variety of talents including vocal and instrumental performances.

Congratulations to the following Scouts, who made it to the next round: Alice May from A317, who sang an original piece accompanied by guitar; Gracie Barr-Jones from B211, who sang accompanied by ukulele; and Elenna Baquiran from A435, who sang accompanied by ukulele.

SPOTTED ON THE INTER-WEB, THIS COMMENT ABOUT THE NEW LOGO:

Jo Collins
I just showed this to my scout (11yo) and asked him what he thought.....
Wow! Mum, I love it!!
I asked him what he thought the meaning behind the colours was Mum, the light yellow represents honor
The dark green represents caring for our environment,
The blue background means caring for each other and our leaders
The light red is loving our community
And obviously the normal green / yellow / maroon is for scouts / cubs / joeys
I asked him what he thought about the shape.....
Well I see a cool camp fire but also the Southern Cross..... see you can even see where the little star is....
I'm pretty pumped to hear such a positive and creative interpretation on the new logo!

Who is this Scout? If you're at the Jamboree, drop in to The Daily Bunyip for a free Scout Media badge.

AROUND THE CONTINGENTS

by MATTHEW ELLIS

South Australia

Ever wanted to play on the Adelaide Oval in front of a packed house facing some seriously good bowling from Mitchell Starc and Pat Cummins?

Down at the South Australian Contingent your dream can become a reality.

The pitch is a bowler's dream with inconsistent bounce challenging every batsman, creating a great contest between bat and ball.

NSW has a challenge for you with their tough mini golf course. Freya from D314 said, "the struggle is real" after she had 10 shots on the difficult loop the loop hole.

ACT

You won't see ScoMo, Shorten & Co. here, so head on down and see the ACT contingent, it is a politician-free zone. The Contingent is in pieces so come and put them back together with their Contingent puzzle.

NSW

Fancy yourself a golfer and think you're a match for Tiger Woods?

NT

You've heard of 'guess how many jelly beans in a jar,' well the Northern Territory Contingent has gone one step further 'guess how big this crocodile was' but something is missing. You're only given the skeleton of the crocodile's head, and you have to guess the rest.

There is even a prize, and it's a replica of the crocodile. So, head on down and take a guess!

Listening Ears

"I was wandering around the mall and I saw a golf cart with an empty back seat. So I jumped on and the driver didn't notice. I was on it until we'd driven around nearly the whole Jamboree site."

Phoenix, A209

"I was at The Cube and needed to change my shoes for the mud. I put my shoes in my bag. After the mud activity, I carried my bag back and it only contained my right shoe. I searched all day and saw the shoe in the middle of the floor in lost property."

Owen, D209

"We were back at our camp getting dinner when the Opening Ceremony fireworks went off. We weren't expecting it so we screamed and one Scout almost fell over a guy rope."

Chloe, Taya, Ayden, Leah, Ardi, Zidane and Muhammad, A537

Troop A103 hitting rock bottom

"I didn't expect much of AJ2019 but it's amazing. We set up a chill zone and it's amazing. We really enjoy it there. We've made so many memories! Make the most of AJ and make friends for life."

Caitlin, B221

Brianna, A544

"This is my 3rd Jamboree. I've been to AJ2016, NZ Jamboree and now AJ2019. AJ2016 was different because of its size compared to normal camps. NZ was awesome, because of learning about the different culture, but also seeing the similarities between Australia and New Zealand. So far AJ2019 has been amazing."

"We have two Troop wheelbarrows to get food. One doesn't have bolts so when I used it, it fell apart. Then the wheels fell off and when I went to take it back, the handle fell off."

Andrew, C553

"Because our trolley fell apart, we had to carry our food back from the store. The bottom fell out of our box so we got a new one, and then the bottom fell out of it. Luckily some lovely WA Scouts helped us carry our food back."

Phoebe, C553

"We had fun today at Wet 'n' (Very) Windy. They had to cancel some of the events because of the wind, but the Dragon-boats and rubber duckies were the highlight. We can't tell you what the rubber duckies are to keep it a surprise."

Bailey, Rory, Jacko and Recess, A428

Zara from Troop A215 and 1st Trafalgar is enjoying her Queensland pineapple slushy in her VicCon buff scarf.

"When we got here, we started setting up but then we got tired, so we slept under the stars that night,"

Troop A654

"The coolest thing so far was finding all the "hidden secrets" in our Sub camp, which were a bee's nest, ant's nest, a number plate, and a tree stump that we only noticed because we tripped over it!"

Troop C433

"Our trip here was pretty cool, it was Keane's birthday, so everyone sang happy birthday!"

C219

"At dinner tonight, I had BBQ sauce on ice-cream for dessert. Lucas thought it was chocolate topping. They also said the tomato sauce was strawberry topping. I think our Leader, Harthy, fabricated labels and set us up!"

Dylan, D209

"I was relaxing in the very wet, slimy mud when a group of Scouts came along and started burying me up to my neck. Some went in my mouth and I couldn't get up, so I was lying there with mud in my mouth."

Benji, D209

Lochy, D319 and Pauline, A654 swapping badges near the Contingent tents

"Today my friend almost lost her trading badges when she bought chips. When we got to our Troop, she realised her badges were missing. After we went back in the mall, we found them!"

Lara, B221

"It all started in Hi-Tech Photography when Rebecca needed her small Bean Juice (aka Mocha). We asked ourselves 'what photo should we take?' and Rebecca had an idea! She turned to the person next to her with an empty coffee cup in hand and said 'we should balance this on your head' as a joke. We actually did it, then back at camp, Steph balanced one cup, then two and finally three coffee cups."

Steph and Rebecca, A544

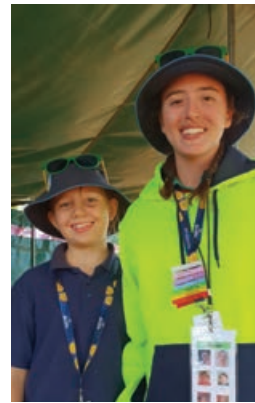

Ryan, Jordan, James and Marko from C556 were so desperate to get a Media Centre badge they tried begging and offering exotic animals.

I went into the ACT site for badge swapping with Leaders and Scout said that she would like to swap. Brianna is attending her 3rd Jamboree. AJ2016, NZ Jamboree and now AJ2019.

Her thoughts on all 3 Jamborees: AJ2016 - it was different because of size compared to normal camping. Quite exciting and definitely worth doing. NZ Jamboree - was awesome, because of learning about the different culture, but also seeing the similarities between Australia and New Zealand. AJ2019 - so far amazing. Each one is different in its own memory. Going forward in Scouting, onto Venturers before end of 2019 and looking forward to attending the next Venture.

Brianna, A544

Today we went to BANG and WIZZ. I have been telling Emma all about the pegging game we did at my first Jamboree - AJ2016. We've managed to collect a whole rainbow of pegs from friends we met. We really love that the pegs make a rainbow because it celebrates the diversity of global friendship and uniting everyone together in fun.

Livi, C544

Tia, A215 takes sun protection pretty seriously. Zinc cream smurf!

Today my patrol Arnoux went to Trades. At the crazy hair and beauty, my cornbraids turned green and I ended up with a bonus hair sticker that says 'Shake before use' My patrol thought this would be an excellent idea and gave me a Patrol hug shake before dinner.

Kate, C544

We should have listened to Tia and worn sunscreen at Wet & Windy!

In Troop A214, National General Manager Cathy Morcom caught up with her children: APL Rafe and PL Brianna.

Dear Daily Bunyip,
Love your newspaper which I am reading from Myanmar (Burma).
A big shout out for the SA Lones and A212 who've managed to bring in kids from all over SA and even abroad.

Our son, Henri, travelled 8854 km (and that's one way) from Yangon through Hong Kong to Adelaide on his own and is missing nine days of school to join AJ2019 (requiring a week of schoolwork through his Christmas holidays in preparation) - all because we knew AJ2019 would be more than worth it.

Thanks to the amazing Leaders in SA Lones (Lee and Andrew) and the A212 leaders for their extra efforts. Huge thanks to all who are making this happen.

Badges sell out fast!

The pocket badge of the new Scouts Australia logo has been a smash hit. We had 5000 badges to sell at the National tent and they were gone in 1.5 days. (If you've got one, sew it on the Phil Harrison way, for security.) You can get pocket badges by ordering at the Scout Shop online. The National tent still has stock of the groovy National Contingent badge.

Thomas and Jessica from Troop C662 are here at AJ2019. In 1952-53 their grandfather attended the 4th Pan-Pacific Jamboree in Sydney where more than 11,000 Scouts accompanied by 2000 Scoutmasters converged on Greystanes, at the bottom of Prospect Hill NSW. There were attendees from every State in Australia, 16 nations abroad, and 241 Lady Cubmasters.

Dear Bunyip,
Convince me in 25 words or less that the general store isn't a myth

Jessamy, Troop C322

Dear Jessamy,
This is an excellent question. And something a lot of people have been asking. The general view is that the general store is because

Dear Bunyip,
I keep dropping my food on the ground and now I have to survive on muesli bars.

How do I stop this?
Sayuni, Troop D323

Dear Sayuni,
Have you tried eating closer to the ground, like a goanna? Just a thought.

Buckley

Dear Bunyip,
I have an upset stomach.

Embarrassed

Dear E,
Get your mum to bring you to the Media Centre or the Medical Centre. They're next to each other and virtually do the same thing.

Buckley

Dear Bunyip,
Why are the activities called Splat, Whizz and Bang?

ASK THE BUNYIP

Advice and ancient Jamboree wisdom

Dear Clunk,
Because Snap, Crackle and Pop was already taken.

Buckley

Dear Bunyip,
I've heard a family of nine have come to the Jamboree!

Amazed

Dear Amazed,
Crazy! It would have been easier to take the Jamboree to them.

Buckley

Dear Bunyip
The ship in Flinders Sub Camp is making me sea sick. What should I do?

Nauseous.

Dear Nauseous
Try breathing in some nice healthy dust to settle the stomach.

Dr Buckley

Dear Bunyip
How do I stop my face from getting so dirty?

Concerned.

Dear Concerned
Have you tried walking around with your head in a bucket?

Buckley

Dear Bunyip
Why is it such a long way to Bang!

Clunk's friend

Dear friend of Clunk,
You think we should put the target range in the Mall?

Buckley

Dear Bunyip
I believe in Sun Smart. But isn't Slip, slop, slap a bit violent?

Pacifist

Dear Pacifist,
Good point. And who

"slaps" on a hat? I prefer to don a hat. So from now on it's "Slip, slap, don". If that's OK with Don.

Buckley

Dear Bunyip,
I tried Phil Harrison's life hack and it dissolved my shirt instead of the glue. Can I sue?

Brendan

Dear Brendan,
Did you use Super glue or water soluble fabric glue?

Buckley

WEEDY OR LEAFY? ROUND THREE

There's massive interest in the world's first UFC match between a Weedy Sea Dragon (Victoria) and Leafy Sea Dragon (SA).

Bad news, sports fans. Last night's cage match between a Weedy Sea Dragon (Vic) and a Leafy Sea Dragon (SA) was scrapped at the last minute after animal rights activists spoiled everyone's fun. But the fantastic team behind AJ 2019 were not going to let fans miss out on the cage fight of the century. So, be down at the dam at midnight tonight, when Brendan Watson and Harry Long strip down to their lycra sea dragon onesies. This is about State pride. Two Chief Commissioners will go into the dam but ...

6 people who... Are Jamboree Veterans

Brad B439 - Leader

This is my seventh Jamboree. One as a Scout and six as a Leader.

Angus C331

Camping for ten days, being away from my parents, and the activities. This is my second time.

John Air Activities team - Leader

I keep coming back for the camaraderie, meeting up and keeping in touch with people I've met in the past, and putting back into the system I got so much out of as a Scout.

Rohan D536

My second Jamboree and the best part is the fun and friends both with this Troop and others.

Sarah A543

This is my second Jamboree and all I can see is dust.

Liv D536

This year is my second. My first Jamboree I was a baby - my parents were working on the newspaper at Elmore.

Old Man Jefferson

Day 3 - Sunday January 6 2019AD

Yesterday was much quieter. Light winds freshened the site, as Scouts wafted past like tumbleweeds. Everyone cleared out as activities began, so we were able to fully focus on our frapping turns.

Some people ask why we're still setting up our site. They claim that this is 2019 and Jamborees should be about fun.

But I think that fun is over-rated. Like uniform, logos, and the girls-in-Scouting experiment, we have to be careful of fads that come and go.

The tried and tested parts of Scouting - the woggle, garter tabs and being thrifty - are our enduring values. It might be 2019, but I think all right-thinking people will agree that the 1950s were our heyday.

So I was surprised again to see an extraordinary number of girls on the site.

Over a mug of hot cocoa at Troop Council the PLs and I often discuss our favourite Scout Laws. Sometimes the lads ask me for advice on life.

They're particularly interested in my many major mistakes so they can learn from my mis-steps.

They ask me about girls and I explain that I'm still waiting for the right Lady Cub Master to come along.

But on Visitors' Day, EG2019 will be swarming with sisters and cousins and Girl Guides. Not that I've anything against Guides. They make wonderful homemakers, and quite good biscuits.

A friend of mine met a nice lass at the St George's Day parade and he's enjoyed 25 happy years of marriage. (Unfortunately they married in 1955.)

To be cautious we've decided to go off-site on Visitors Day. With no gear and no food (a bit like Metromania) we're going to head off into the wilds and have a survival camp. They tell me that Roxby Downs is a nice spot.
